FLYING THROUGH THE AIR WITH THE GREATEST OF EASE

Children from Free Arts for Abused Children strap on safety belts, above, before climbing up the trapeze at Trapeze School New York at the Santa Monica Pier on Tuesday. At right, Laila Krohn, 13, hangs upside-down from a trapeze during the high-flying event. The Flying Caceres from Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus gave a trapeze demonstration, and workers from the Trapeze School New York gave one-on-one lessons. The Free Arts organization aims to bring the healing power of the arts to at-risk, homeless and abused children and youth.
